

What do Lion Cubs Do?

The den of Lion Cubs and their adult partners meet together twice per month:

- The first meeting of the den will be based upon one of the Family/Den activities.
- The second meeting each month will be a Grand Adventure outing.

The Lions Cub Den from Hudson Elementary visited the Hudson fire station Tuesday Jan. 20, for their "Grand Adventure."

Who are Lion Cubs?

- Lion Cubs are kindergarten boys
- Lion Cubs join with a parent / adult partner
- Lion Cubs form dens of 6-8 Lion Cub pairs
- Lion Cub dens are part of a Cub Scout pack
- Lion Cubs may wear a special Lion Cub t-shirt to their activities
- Lion Cubs move to the next Cub Scout level (Tiger Cubs) at the end of kindergarten

Pack Feedback

"Great idea to get kids exposed and excited at this level!"

Do you feel the activities are age appropriate and motivating?

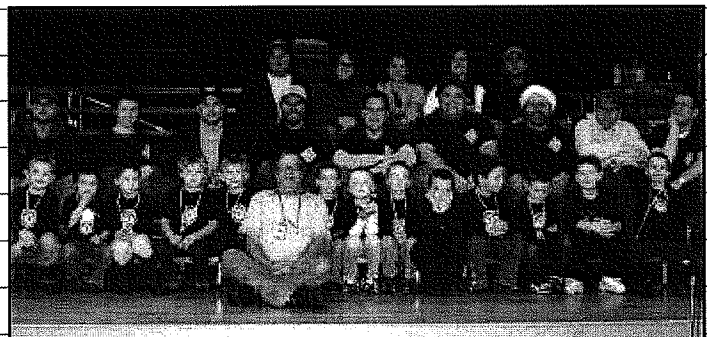

"I really think that this program is right on track . . . The BSA needs to bring Kindergartners into the program as soon as possible."

"One meeting a month and any pack activities is very manageable."

"Yes, we have changed a few of the activities but use the guide as a reference."

"Thanks for getting the younger kids involved."

"The families are doing well with taking their turn to plan a month's activities."
